

PRAYERLINE: SUNDAY 27TH NOVEMBER TO SATURDAY 3RD DECEMBER 2011UGANDA

Sian Davies, Director of Biojemms and a full-time social worker in the UK, will be in Uganda from 3rd December to 2nd January. Pray for safety and wisdom in all she does. Pray for Bright and Micah overseeing the family home in Rukungiri. Pray the new poultry business will thrive and the four young people running this will learn independence and business skills.

GUYANA

National Elections take place in Guyana on 28th November. The current government has been in power for 19 years. The nation is anticipating trouble. Pray for God's intervention and peace. Pray the right government will be elected to take the nation forward.

BRAZIL

Martin Davison and his brother-in-law Pastor Tinho return to Brazil on Sunday 27th November. Pray for safe travelling. Pray they will know God's guidance and wisdom in all they do.

CONGO

Debbie Howard returns to Congo on Tuesday 29th November after a period of home leave and visiting churches. Pray for God's hand to be upon Debbie as she takes up the reins of ministry again.

SOUTH EAST ASIA FOCUS GROUP

Pray that God will guide in all the discussions that take place at a South East Asia Focus Group taking place at Malvern on Monday 28th November.

WORLD AIDS DAY

Thursday 1st December is World AIDS Day. Pray for Christian organisations around the world involved in orphan and adult care, prevention and education, counselling and medical help. Pray for the many children orphaned as a result of HIV that they will be loved and cared for. Pray for governments to recognise the problem and act to make a difference.

PHILIPPINES

Mark and Cora King leave the UK on 3rd December to return to the Philippines. Pray for them both as they lead the ministry in Cebu that God will use them mightily.

“...to open their eyes and turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan to God, so that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me.” Acts 26:18
